BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SPORTS

The establishment of Vidyasagar University on 29th September 1981, in honor of Pandit Iswar Chandra Vidyasagar, a prominent educationist and social reformer of Bengal, aimed to address diverse regional, ethnic, socio-cultural, and geographical educational needs. The university's emblem, featuring the motto "EDUCATION, KNOWLEDGE, PROGRESS," symbolizes this mission.

Since its inception, the university has prioritized games and sports activities. Organized in 1985, these activities have witnessed a steady increase in student participation, supported by the university's sports authority.

In university settings, sports and academics are intertwined. Our university teams have actively engaged in Inter-University Tournaments, including Football (Men & Women), Cricket (Men), Kho-Kho (Men & Women) since 1986, and Volleyball (Men), Athletics (Men & Women), Yogasana (Men & Women) since 2007, demonstrating consistent performance improvements. Furthermore, the university hosts Inter-College tournaments encompassing Football (Men & Women), Cricket (Men), Volleyball (Men), Kho-Kho (Men & Women), Kabaddi (Men & Women), Athletics (Men & Women), Chess (Men & Women), Yogasana (Men & Women), and Table Tennis (Men & Women), attracting participation from numerous colleges. Additionally, our university teams play pivotal roles in various Inter-University Tournaments, underscoring our commitment to sports excellence.
