Regular cultural programmes are organized in which students from different ethnic and other cultural groups participate to increase their consciousness about national harmony. Republic Day (26th January), Independence Day (15th August), Youth Day (12th January), etc. are celebrated in the University Campus. Speakers instill awareness among the students and local community about their values, duties, rights and responsibilities as citizens. Induction programs of students are held at the beginning of each semester. Participation in the programmes undertaken by the NSS enables the stakeholders to become aware as well as inculcate awareness in others about privileges and duties in keeping with the Constitution of India. Ethnic culture of Santali community is nurtured through different programmes organized by the department of Santali, English, and also NSS units.
