Dear Shubhendu Shekhar Naskar

Research Grant confirmation of offer – Charles Wallace India Trust (CWIT).

I am pleased to tell you that the CWIT trustees would like to offer you a grant of £1,500 towards the cost of the short UK research visit that you have planned. This grant is to enable you to conduct research into Dr B.R Ambedkar's London Years and the making of Dalit Theatre, as outlined in your application.

Please note that CWIT will not be able to offer you any additional funding to that set out in this letter. It is your responsibility to plan in advance and ensure that you have sufficient funds to cover your international travel and all of your living costs as well as any other necessary expenses for the entirety of your stay in the UK. This could include items such as PCR Covid testing or the purchase of books/journals etc.

Please also note that by accepting this offer, you agree that CWIT does not owe you a duty of care of any kind, and in particular, though not limited to, in cases of emergency, accident, injury or illness, should any occur to you during your stay in the UK. To that extent, we would advise that, prior to your arrival in the UK, you ensure that you have the necessary means to undertake your studies/research in the UK for the entirety of its duration and have taken out all necessary insurance policies, including health insurance and travel insurance.

Grant conditions: you must write a brief report (maximum 3 or 4 pages of A4 paper), for the CWIT trustees within two months of completing your course and returning to India. You may be disqualified from applying to CWIT in the future if we do not receive this report.

Please read the terms and conditions carefully and if you wish to accept our offer, please sign and scan a copy of this letter and email it to me ASAP. Please make early contact with Sakshi Sharma at the British Council (she is cc'd here). British Council colleagues will be able to support your visa application. They will also arrange for you to collect the grant on arrival in the UK, on behalf of CWIT.

Yours sincerely,
